

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
OFFICE OF INFORMATION
PRESS SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

Immediate Release

September 30, 1933.

SEVEN REGIONAL OFFICES OPENED
BY AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT SECTION

Administration of the Agricultural Adjustment

Act is to be facilitated by seven regional offices being established in accordance with instructions issued by Administrator George N. Peek and Co-administrator Charles J. Brand.

These offices, located in New York City, Atlanta, Minneapolis, Chicago, Kansas City, New Orleans, and San Francisco are being set up under the licensing and enforcement section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and will be under the supervision of regional managers. Where and when necessary, district offices will be established under the regional offices.

The regional offices and the territories they serve are:

Region No. 1 - Pacific Coast - Headquarters, San Francisco, Consular Bldg., 510 Battery St.; includes California, Oregon, Washington, Utah, Idaho, Arizona, New Mexico and Nevada. Brice M. Mace, Jr., regional manager.

Region No. 2 - Midwest - Headquarters, Kansas City, Mo., 214 Railway Exchange Bldg.; includes Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. Frank C. Baker, regional manager.

Region No. 3 - North Central - Headquarters, Chicago, Room 721, 506 S. Wabash Ave.; includes Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana. C. B. Spofford, regional manager.

Region No. 4 - Mid-Atlantic - Headquarters, New York City, Room 621, 45 Broadway; includes West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Delaware, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, and Maine. Edward G. Sabine, regional manager.

Region No. 5 - Southeastern - Headquarters, Atlanta, Ga.; includes Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida and Georgia. Thomas C. Barringer, regional manager.

